FRIDAY, AUGUST 11/A, 1882. Brarsus during the week has been almost wholly confined to the filling of light orders from the other islands, and supplying the daily demands of consumers here, Money is not quite so abundant as it will be when the Appropriation Bill is officially promulgated.

In domestic produce the receipts at this port during the week have been 14,945 packages sugar, 4100 bgs paddy, 285 bgs rice and 32 bbls molasses; while the exports have been 4,225 pokgs sugar, 550 of rice and 40 of molasses by the W. H. Meyer and steamer Jas. Makee for the Coast.

The steamer Jas. Makes left here on the 9th for Sun Francisco, where she expects to arrive on or about the 18th. She will be furnished there with a new and larger botler and have a thorough overhauling. During her absence the C. R. Bishop will make the circuit of Kauai trip on alternate weeks. The bk D. C. Murray sails today for the Coast with about 200 tons of sugar, 50 of rice and some wool and molasses.

There seems to be a prospect of our having two semimonthly lines of steamers between here and San Francisco, in which case we may expect to have a regular mail

The British steamer Anjer Head is now due from San Francisco en route for China. This is the last S. P. steamer of those recently engaged in carrying Coolies to that port, that we know will touch here on her way to China, and the probabilities are that she will carry away quite a number of Chinese

The Government offer for lease the large plot of ground on the Esplanade directly in front of the Custom House. for a term of years, on condition the lessoe erect a fireproof warehouse on the ground. The locality is a very fine one, and it has been suggested that the site is the best in the city for a Custom House, and that the Government should build there and lease the present one.

These are chiefly concerned with the illicit traffic in liquor, with liquor while in that state. The difference between the new law and the old one and the changes introduced are of an important character. But perhaps the most striking feature of the new Act, is the method with which it deals with the question of licensing. The changes which are to come into force on October 1st are radical, and are expected to afford material aid to the suppression of drunkenness. In future the licenses to be granted are thus defined: 1st-Wholesale licenses; the holders of which are only allowed to sell in the packages in which the liquor was originally imported; 2nd-Dealer's licenses, which permit the sale of spirits in any quantity not less than one gallon, and wines, ales, etc., in quantities not less than one dozen bottles-no liquor sold by the dealer being allowed to be consumed on the premises for which the license is granted; 3rd-Retail licenses which authorize the licenser to sell and dispose of any spirituous liquors, to be drunk on the premises therein specified between the hours of five o'clock A. M. and eleven o'clock at night on every day except Sunday." Now it will be observed that this list displays a notable omission. One whole class of the present trade in liquor, and that a very important one, is put an end to altogether. We allude to the sale of liquor by the bottle to be carried away from the premises in which it is sold. By his license under the new Act the retail dealer will be precluded from sellthe premises named in the license. If to preserve what he can of one important

EDITORIAL ARTICLES.

From the Daily Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

HIS MAJESTY'S speech at the prorogation of the Assembly sums up in a few words all the more important work done by the Assembly during its session. No one can read that summary without feeling that the hope which His Majesty expresses himself as sharing with the members of the Legislature, that "a new departure in the way of benificent progress" has been assured for his Kingdom is grounded on a solid foun- immigration to promote repopulation; dation. the King are of a character to accomplish that end. All the many important Bills introduced by the Government were prepared with much care and gave evidence, not only of skillful draftsmanship, but of much thought and no little experience of affairs on the part of those who drafted them. In the committees to which they were referred they also received much attention. It would be too much to hope that they will be found perfect. To what known legislation can such an epithet be justly given? But as they stand now as Acts | feel assured that these liberal pro- claim of His Majesty and in favor of the heirs of the Assembly they form a mass of legislation of which no parliament need to be ashamed. They meet many urgent needs of the times and we feel no doubt that even those parts of them to which a minority in the community have declared themselves opposed, will, by their results, prove even to these, their opponents, that they are wise and salutary measures. It remains now with Ministers to show that they are as able in administration as they have proved themselves to be in devising measures for the country's good. They have a great opportunity before them and if they use it so as to conserve and further the interests of all classes of the community each of them will earn for himself the statesman's best reward-plenty of abuse, a good conscience and a name to be remembered forever.

Much curiosity appears to have existed both in the House and outside about the figures contained in the documents connected with the introduction of Portuguese immigrants by the S.S. Monarch which were produced to the Assembly on Friday, copies of which were given in our last issue They show that Messrs. Hoffnung and Co. charged the Government $60,250 for securing and sending to Honolulu 434 adults and 337 children by the Monarch. In addition to this, the Government has to pay $486 (equal to $1.11 per head of the adult passengers) for stamps on the agreements they entered into, and $1,317.11 for advances made to the immigrants. They show also that the conveyance and provisioning these immigrants would have cost the Government $28,622.60 (less the proceeds of sale here of fittings and surplus stores) had they undertaken that work themselves. Setting aside any question of reduced cost through sale of fittings and surplus stores, we have here the sum of $31,627.40 paid to Hoffnung and Co. for their services in collecting the immigrants and superintending the business of shipping them. Dividing this by the whole number of immigrants over 14 years of age we get $72.87 per head as the fee paid for these services. In a letter from Messrs. Hoffnung and Co. to some one here, which was recently made public that, firm take much credit to themselves for not throwing overboard the Hawaiian Government when the representatives of some other country offered them $25 a head for collecting immigrants, and stated that this was a good deal more than they received from our Government. The lesson to be learnt from these figures is that the system of placing Government contracts with favored individuals instead of putting them on the open market for large circle of friends by his generous and obliging manners and his kind and dutiful conduct towards his widone should need to learn such a lesson at this owed mother. His sudden and distressing death is day, even here. But this is the way that seemed to suit the late Ministry. This is J. O. Carter, Commercial Agent for Japan, not the only matter which has come under | M. Louvieres, Chancelier de Consulat de the notice of the Assembly during the present session in which the propriety of letting all public work by tender has been demonstrated. In many countries, amongst which the British colonies to the scuth of us may be quoted as suitable examples, the system is made compulsory by law not only on the Government but on all public bodies, such as Municipal Councils, Road Boards, school Boards, etc., etc. We shall have to adopt similar safeguards here.

THE Act to regulate the licensing of public hack-drivers is one of some little importance to this town. Heretofore the drivers of our expresses have not been obliged to take out a license-it was the vehicle and not the driver that was licensed. no other penalty could be inflicted for offences against the regulations. The reexpress quickly changed hands, or was made to appear to do so, and the new owner could get a fresh license at once. Under with the suppression of drunkenness, and the new law drivers must obtain a license, with the punishment of those who assist | and will now be amenable to penalties for others to become intoxicated or serve them | overcharges and other breaches of the regulations. We have, during the past twelve months, had numerous complaints made to us of overcharges and of insolence when in regard to these matters is considerable | more than the proper fare was refused, Any one subjected to this sort of thing will in future have a fair remedy available.

welfare of my Kingdom. Nobles and Representatives:

I pray that the Almighty will have you in His keeping. I now declare the Legislative Assembly of 1882 prorogued.

This terminated the Legislative Proceedclose of His speech. Amongst the distinguished persons pres-

Rodgers and Pearson of H. B. M. S. Sappho, the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court and other Government officers. The following ladies were also amongst the honored guests, Madame Feer, Mrs. J. E. Bush, Mrs. F. H. Hayselden, Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Haley. The ladies in waiting on the Royal Princesses, were Mrs. Charles B. Wilson, Miss Sophie Shelden, Mrs. Curtis Iaukea and Miss Coney.

The limited attendance of the ladies of Honolulu, who generally patronize these important Royal ceremonies, was no doubt owing to the inclemency of the weather, but of the few that did face the storm, their costuming was very rich and appropriate. Her Royal Highness Princess Liliuokalani was dressed in-black with Cardinal trimmings; Princess Likelike wore sky blue satin with lace trimmings; Mrs. Bush appeared in pink satin, and Mrs. F. H. Hayselden in a cream colored silk trimmed with

His Majesty wore the full dress uniform of a German military officer, and on his left breast he wore the insignia of several royal orders. H. M. Chamberlain also appeared in a very rich uniform, heavily draped with gold lace.

The whole ceremony was very imposing, and was a fitting close to the important Session of 1882.

Saturday, July 22nd. J. Kaiokaili vs Abikaila; divorce. This case was heard on 8th July. Mr. Kalua for libellant now produced certain papers required by the Court and a decree was granted.

J. McGuire vs Robert Briggs; A. J. Cartwright ings of 1882, His Majesty retiring at the garnishee. Assumpsit. Mr. Hartwell for plaintiff; Mr. S. B. Dole for defendant. The parties waived their right to a jury. After this case had been fully heard, the Court adjourned for the noon recess, and on its resuming Mr. Hartwell discontinued the suit.

Monday, July 24th. Henry Cornwell vs Board of Education, Mr. Hartwell and Mr. Hatch for plaintiff; His Ex. the Attorney-General Mr. E. Preston for the Board of Education. This was a suit to recover tender is a bad one. It is curious that any | Hackfeld, acting Consul for Germany, T. damages for being deprived of certain lands R. Walker, Vice-Consul for Great Britain, which, along with other lands, were sold at a public sale held by order of the Board, which lands were subsequently found not to be the property of the Board, but to belong to the Es-France, Commander Clarke, Lieutenants tate of the late Moehonua. Documents and maps having been put in and the witnesses for the plaintiff heard, the Attorney-General moved for non-suit on the grounds: 1st, that plaintiff himself knew the number of acres and he should have asked to have contract rescinded, and 2nd, that there was no warranty. Mr. Hartwell urged that to "give in fee simple" implies a warranty, and quoted a number of American cases in support of his argument. Mr. Preston excepted to this ruling. After calling the Secretary of the Education Board, Mr. Preston closed his case and asked the Court to direct the jury to find a verdict for the defendant. This the Court declined to do, and without leaving the room the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff; damages $7,500. Mr. Preston excepted to the verdict.

Antonio Manuel vs Hollister and Parmalee ejectment. Mr. J. M. Davidson, for plaintiff; Mr. R. F. Bickerton, for defendant. Plaintiff had let certain premises to defendants and had not granted them the right to sublet. Nevertheless they let two rooms, part of the premises to some Chinese, on which ground the plaintiff sought to turn them out. The letting of the two rooms was admitted by defendant's counsel, who moved for a non-suit on the ground that plaintiff had not made out his case: 1st. Because renting part of the premises was not equivalent to a subletting, as to which the learned counsel quoted Johnson's Reports 17, p. 66, and 3 Hawaiian Reports, p. 127; and 2nd: Because before they could be ousted, defendants must be shown to have parted with the legal estate, and they had only parted with a posion of it. The Court refused to order a ususuit and Mr. Bickerton excepted to the ruing. The defendant's case was then proceeded with. In the course of it Mr. Bickerton desired to tender the evidence of Mr. T. Lucas to show the condition of the premises when the defendants rented them and the improvements made by them since that date. The Court decided that testimony on these points was not important, to which ruling Mr. Bickerton excepted. A ter a short retirement, the jury brough! in a verdict for the defendants, three jurors dissenting. Mr. Davidson excepted to His Honor's charge to the jury and particularly to the statement that from the circumstance that the plaintiff had passed the premises and had seen them occupied by Chinese, if he did not know that the premises were sublet, he ought to have known it; and that after that plaintiff had received rents from the defendants through his agent, Mr. Dayton.

Tuesday, July 25th. Mele Holelua et al. vs Keoni Kaupu; ejectment. In this case Mr. Dole moved that a new trial be granted, stating that his only ground was that the verdict was contrary to law and the evidence. It was deemed desirable that the argument should be taken before the Full Court and His Honor denied the motion pro forma and Mr. Dole appealed.

Kalaeokekoi vs D, Kahanu; ejectment. Exactly similar proceedings took place in this case as in the previous one. Jose Antonio Santos vs Samuel Kaeo; ejectment, Jury waived. Mr. W. O. Jones for plaintiff; Mr. J. M. Davidson for defendant. The case was argued and submitted and the
